

RVERS of IDAHO

April 2025 Newsletter

By the time you see this we should be home, barring any unforeseen problems. We enjoyed our time in Arizona, but are ready to be home, a camper gets pretty small after 4 months. We have done some interesting things while down here. The Yuma air show was interesting and quite loud. We met some new friends while here and Tanner really loved the dog park. More people know him than Monica and me.

Our Summer Rally will be here before we know it. Tim and the planning committee are finalizing the agenda and the registration form for Glens Ferry. They will be available on the website soon. I am still hoping someone will step up and volunteer to chair the fall rally at Trinity View Resort. I'm sure that Brad Gates and Ron Agenbroad would be more than happy to assist in any way possible.

On a somber note, Frank Sargent passed away in Phoenix recently. He had been ill most of the winter in Yuma. He will be missed by many of our members. He was a member of Good Sams for many years and was an assistant director for the Grangeville/Lewiston area for a number of years. Pastor Dave announced that there will be a memorial service for Frank on May 20 at 10:30 am at the senior center in Grangeville Idaho.

RV TIPS FOR THE MONTH: Some tips to cover up nicks and blemishes on your RV's interior; for white surfaces, tile caulk, plain white toothpaste, acrylic or oil artist's paint. For colored surfaces, a crayon that closely matches the color or a closely matching acrylic or oil paint. Always try them on an inconspicuous area first.

FUNNIES OF THE MONTH:

You should never iron a four-leaf clover. You don't want to press your luck!

What was Noah's profession, he was an ark-itect.

Husband "The bank returned your check." Wife "Good, now I can use it for something else!"

March is behind us now. Best wishes to all of you for April. We'll see you in June at the Summer Rally in Glens Ferry.
