

RVERS of IDAHO

December 2024 Newsletter

Welcome to December. First, there was an error in last month's newsletter. I put the Sourdough's campout next summer as the 28th of July through the 1st of June. They aren't really going camping for 11 months. The correct dates are the 28th of July through the 1st of August, sorry for the confusion.

When this newsletter comes out, we will be basking in the Arizona sunshine, or on our way there. Unless Mother Nature decides to slow us down. It is our first attempt to try out snowbirding, and we are looking forward to escaping winter and having new experiences and meeting new people.

The Christmas season is upon us, I actually saw Christmas lights on before Halloween. That seems to be a bit early, I think. We really enjoy listening to Christmas music and Sirius XM has several channels that are playing it. The other day, they played Little Drummer Boy, and I thought about Jesus being the Son of God and Him being willing to be born as a child in such humble circumstances. Thinking of this brought tears to my eyes. It is really humbling to think that He loved us so much to submit to all that He did for us.

I am going to miss putting up all of our Christmas decorations this year. I enjoy decorating our house every Christmas season. However, we are taking a few with us to Yuma, so we will have some to display. I understand that Sun Vista decorates the grounds pretty well.

On to RVers business. Tim Haskell of Time to Travel has agreed to chair the Summer Rally at Glens Ferry. Please help him out if he asks you to handle any of the myriads of tasks that involve with putting on the rally. Presidents, if you haven't sent state dues to Judy yet, please remit them as soon as possible, they were due by the 15th of November. We update your rosters at this time. Presidents should have the latest version of the proposed Operating Guidelines within the next few weeks so that they can be discussed and voted on in the chapters before the June meeting.

RV TIPS: When traveling, when you stop for a break be sure to check your RV hitch, electrical connection, awning and tires and wheels. Stop at visitor centers while traveling, most will have discount coupons for local attractions. Check your mirrors every 30 seconds.

MONTHLY FUNNIES: What do you call a watch worn on a belt? A waist of time.

Why would Snow White make a good judge? Because she is the fairest of all.

Little Amy confided to her uncle "When I grow up I'm going to marry the boy next door". "Why is that?" "Cause I'm not allowed to cross the street."

Merry Christmas to all,

Ken and Monica
